Perched above the buildings and rooftops of Center City, on the 29th floor of the iconic William Penn house is a one-of-a-kind home, comprised of 3 separate units that were tastefully combined to make one expansive and upgraded residence. Enjoy an abundance of indirect natural light flowing in from all windows, soaking each corner of this amazing space. The main unit consists of an entry foyer with two large closets, an extra spacious living and dining area with plenty of wall space to display artwork plus a custom chef's kitchen and 2 spacious bedrooms with 2 full baths. The kitchen features Quartz countertops with waterfall, GE Monogram refrigerator, GE Profile wall oven and built-in microwave plus a convenient coffee bar area with abundant pantry space. The hall bath features a custom modern vanity and an extra deep soaking tub. The second bedroom is spacious with a full closet. The oversized primary suite offers a wall of closets, 2 incredible walk-in closets, plus a separate shoe closet and a custom tile bathroom with walk-in shower, a built-in makeup vanity area plus linen/ medicine storage drawers and cabinetry. The second unit is an entirely self-contained studio apartment with full kitchen featuring granite countertops, spacious living area, a renovated neutral bath with Quartz countertops and a custom shower stall. Abundant closet space and a stackable washer/dryer is located off the bath area. The third unit also has a private entrance and is currently used as a private office space with a wall of built-in
